Articles of Association of Cambridge Students’ Union

BACKGROUND

A. Cambridge Students' Union (the “Union”) is a students’ union within the meaning of the Education Act 1994. The Union is devoted to the educational interests and welfare of its Student Members.

B. The Union will seek at all times to:

(i) ensure that the diversity of its Student Membership is recognised and that equal access is available to all Student Members of whatever origin or orientation;

(ii) effectively represent both Undergraduate and Postgraduate Student Members;

(iii) pursue its aims and objectives independent of any political party or religious group; and

(iv) pursue equal opportunities by taking positive action within the law to facilitate participation of groups discriminated against by society.

C. These Articles have been structured to give the Board of Trustees reasonable authority to manage the affairs of the Union in a professional manner. The Student Members enjoy the right, which must be exercised in accordance with charity law, to elect a proportion of the Trustees and to dismiss all of the Trustees. The Board of Trustees will give the utmost consideration to the views of Student Members.

D. Under the Education Act 1994, the University of Cambridge has a statutory duty to ensure that the Union operates in a fair and democratic manner and is held to proper account for its finances. The Union therefore works alongside the University of Cambridge in ensuring that the affairs of the Union are properly conducted and that the educational and welfare needs of the Union’s Student Members are met.

34.1 The Trustees must hold a minimum of four meetings in each Academic Year.
34.2 Guests or observers can attend meetings of the Trustees at the discretion of the Chair of the Meeting.

35. Calling a Trustees’ meeting

Three Trustees may, and the Chief Executive at the request of three Trustees must, call a Trustees’ meeting.

36. Length of Notice

36.2 urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

37. Contents of Notice

Every notice calling a Trustees’ meeting must specify:

37.1 the place, day and time of the meeting;

37.2 the general particulars of all business to be considered at such meeting; and

37.3 if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

38. Service of Notice

Notice of Trustees’ meetings must be given to each Trustee, but need not be in writing. Notice of Trustees’ meeting may be sent by Electronic Means to an address provided by the Trustee for the purpose.

39. Participation in Trustees’ meetings

39.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and

39.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting (for example via telephone or video conferencing).

39.2 In determining whether Trustees are participating in a Trustees’ meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other.

39.3 If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

40. Quorum for Trustees’ meetings
40.1 At a Trustees’ meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

42. Casting vote

42.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a Trustees’ meeting are equal, the casting vote shall be decided by the majority of votes of the Sabbatical Trustees.

42.2 If a casting vote cannot be decided due to an equality of votes of the Sabbatical Trustees, the Chair shall then have a casting vote in addition to any other vote they may have.

42.3 Article 42.2 does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chair of the Meeting is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

43. Majority decisions without a meeting

43.1 The Trustees may, in the circumstances outlined in this Article, make a two thirds majority decision without holding a Trustees’ meeting.

43.2 If:

43.2.2 that Trustee has taken all reasonable steps to make all the other Trustees aware of the matter and the decision;

43.2.3 the Trustees have had a reasonable opportunity to communicate their views on the matter and the decision to each other; and

43.2.4 a two thirds majority of the Trustees vote in favour of a particular decision on that matter

a decision of the Trustees may be taken by a majority and shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been taken at a Trustees’ meeting duly convened and held.

43.3 Trustees participating in the taking of a majority decision otherwise than at a Trustees’ meeting in accordance with this Article:

43.3.1 may be in different places, and may participate at different times; and

43.5 The Chair or such other Trustee as shall be appointed by the Trustees shall be the chair of the process of decision-making in accordance with this Article. The process shall include:

44.2 There is no need to declare any interest or duty of which the other Trustees are, or ought reasonably to be, already aware.

Participation in decision-making

44.3 If a Trustee’s interest or duty cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Union, they are entitled to participate in the decision-making process, to be counted in the quorum and to vote in relation to the matter. Any uncertainty about whether a Trustee’s interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision of the other Trustees taking part in the decision-making process.

44.4 If a Trustee’s interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Union, they may participate in the decision-making process and may be counted in the quorum and vote unless:

44.4.1 the decision could result in the Trustee or any person who is Connected with the Trustee receiving a benefit other than:

(a) any benefit received in their capacity as a beneficiary of the Union (as permitted under Article 4.4.1) and which is available generally to the beneficiaries of the Union;

(b) the payment of premiums in respect of indemnity insurance effected in accordance with Article 3.33;

(c) payment under the indemnity set out at Article 55; and

(d) reimbursement of expenses in accordance with Article 4.4.2; or

44.4.2 a majority of the other Trustees participating in the decision-making process decide to the contrary;

in which case the Trustee must comply with Article 44.5.

44.5 If a Trustee with a conflict of interest or conflict of duties is required to comply with this Article 44.5, they must:

44.5.1 take part in the decision-making process only to such extent as in the view of the other Trustees is necessary to inform the debate;

44.5.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the process; and

44.5.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

Continuing duties to the Union

44.6.1 the Trustee shall not be in breach of their duties to the Union by withholding confidential information from the Union if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by them; and 44.6.2 the Trustee shall not be accountable to the Union for any benefit expressly permitted under these Articles which they or any person who is Connected with them derives from any matter or from any office, employment or position.
