- 7.4. The Chair shall:

- 8.2.6. Amendments to governing documents
- 8.2.7. Motions
- 8.2.7.1. Action motions shall take precedence over policy motions, as outlined in 9.2.1.

9. Motions

- 9.1. There are four types of motions that can be considered at Council Meetings:
 - 9.1.1. Ordinary Motions, which must be submitted to the Chair not later than 6 days before the meeting.
 - 9.1.2. Balanced Motions, which shall be submitted in 'balanced form', achieved by offering Council Members a maximum of two, independent sets of 'resolves' to vote upon. For avoidance of doubt, 'Balanced Motions' shall offer Council Members a maximum of 2 options within the 'Resolves' section of the Motion, between which Members must resolve to proceed with 1 of the stated options.
 - 9.1.3. Emergency Motions, which must be submitted to the Chair before the meeting. The Chair can refuse to accept an Emergency Motion if the substance of the motion has not arisen after the deadline for the submission of Ordinary Motions.
 - 9.1.4. Procedural Motions, which affect the conduct of the meeting (see 14. Procedural Motions).
 - 9.1.5. All Ordinary, Balanced or Emergency Motions shall be identified as Policy Motions or Action Motions at the discretion of the Chair, when not clearly expressed in the content of the motion.
 - 9.1.5.1. Action motions shall set a position or mandate of the Union on behalf of Members, subject to Article 2 (Objects) of the Articles of Association, which may:
 - 9.1.5.1.1. Mandate ensuing and time-constrained activity to be undertaken or overseen by Union representatives or specific groups;
 - 9.1.5.1.2. Commit resources to mandated activity.
 - 9.1.5.2. Actions shall stay in affect for the time period specified in the policy or until Student Council has been notified of the completion of the relevant mandated activity.
 - 9.1.5.3. The scope of Policy motions is laid out in By-Law 2 - Policy of the Union.
- 9.2. An Ordinary or Emergency Motion must be submitted in writing or by email. It can be proposed by:
 - 9.2.1. two Student Members of the Union; or,
 - 9.2.2. the Board of Trustees; or,
 - 9.2.3. a Standing Body of the Union.
- 9.3. Motions shall be less than 500 words in length.
- 9.4. Motions that must pass through two consecutive Council Meetings:
 - 9.4.1. Policy motions
 - 9.4.1.1. These motions shall be listed for "note" at the first meeting, to allow members to consult their constituents on the substance of the motion. It will then be listed for discussion at the second meeting.

- 9.5. It is the responsibility of the Council Chair to ensure motions requiring ratification proceed to a second vote if one is required.
- 9.6. Any Motion that is deemed by the Chair to contain a racist, sexist, homophobic, transphobic, disablist or other bigoted comment may be refused acceptance.
- 9.7. Submitted motions that call for concrete, verifiable Executive action to be taken should specify the team, officer, or body to be charged with carrying out the action. If a motion is passed which does not designate an agent, the President shall be responsible for assigning the motion's tasks or campaign area.
- 9.8. Motions should be written in three parts:
 - 9.8.1. Facts about the Motion's substance (under "Cambridge SU Notes");
 - 9.8.2. The stance that should be taken (under "Cambridge SU Believes"); and,
 - 9.8.3. The concrete actions and mandates which will come from assent to the Motion (under "Cambridge SU Resolves").

10. Amendments

- 10.1. Amendments to Motions shall be submitted to the Chair.
- 10.2. Amendments can be accepted as "friendly" (i.e. acceptable) by a Motion's proposers at any time (and therefore taken immediately into the text of the main Motion). At the Chair's discretion, proposed friendly amendments may instead be debated in the usual way, should they be deemed to substantially change the substance of the motion.
- 10.3. Amendments may not themselves be amended during debate, except by the request of the proposing speaker.

11. Conduct at Student Council

- 11.1. Student Council Meetings are a safe space. Remarks, behaviour or language that is aggressive, disrespectful, threatening, intimidating, or designed to cause harm or disruption is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
- 11.2. If anyone in attendance feels that someone is engaging or has engaged in any activity laid out in 11.1 they may bring it to the attention of the Chair. The Chair may demand the ceasing of such behaviour or the withdrawal of any remark they deem to contravene 11.1. The Chair may ask those concerned to leave the meeting if this demand is refused; or the activity continues.
- 11.3. Any Student Member present has the right not to be photographed, filmed, or recorded electronically at a Student Council meeting.
 - 11.3.1. A Student Member wishing to exercise this right shall notify the Chair in advance of the start of the meeting.

12. Debate on Ordinary Motions

- 12.1. The debating process shall ordinarily consist of motions (presented as paperwork), speeches (referring to spoken presentations or written submissions), discussion and voting.
- 12.2. The proposer of the Motion (or someone they nominate) makes the proposing speech, unless:
 - 12.2.1. The proposer does not wish to make a speech and has not nominated someone to make a speech on their behalf, in which case, at the discretion of the Chair, any Student Member present may be invited to propose the Motion.

- 12.2.2. The proposer submits a written version of a speech, which must be no longer than 500 words in length and in a font and format accessible to Council Members, either:
- 12.2.2.1. by providing 50 printed copies to Council Members at the meeting and an electronic version to the Chair; or,
- 12.2.2.2. by providing a copy of the speech to the Chair before the time of the Motion being proposed so that the Chair may read the speech to Members of the meeting at the appropriate time.
- 12.3. The Chair shall hereafter open debate to the floor, allowing first for questions to be addressed to the proposer of the motion, then substantive points in favour or opposition to the motion.
- 12.4. If an amendment has been submitted, it is debated after the proposing speech for the main Motion. At the Chair's discretion, some substantive debate of the Motion may take place before the discussion of a given amendment.
- 12.5. If more than one amendment has been submitted to the same Motion, the order the amendments are taken in is decided by the Chair. This is counted as a Chair's Ruling and can be overturned by a Procedural Motion [see 15].
- 12.6. If an amendment is accepted by the proposers as friendly [see 10.2.] or passed by Council, it immediately becomes part of the main Motion.
- 12.7. After the proposing speech, the Chair shall open discussion.
- 12.8. The debate ends when a speech is not taken, or if a Procedural Motion to move to a vote is passed, or when the Chair moves Council to a vote. The proposer then has a chance to give a one-minute 'summation' speech before the vote is taken.

13. Timings

- 13.1. At the discretion of the Chair, there will be a time limit of fifteen minutes to discuss an item on the Agenda that is not an Ordinary, Balanced or Emergency Motion.
- 13.2. Debate on non-procedural motions shall be limited to four speeches, with an additional two speeches allowed for every amendment. Where a Motion has been separated into parts, debate on each part shall be limited to two speeches.
- 13.3. A speaker may normally speak for up to three minutes, except for:
- 13.3.1. Announcements shall be limited to one minute per announcement.
- 13.3.2. Speeches during procedural motions shall be thirty seconds each.
- 13.3.3. There are no fixed time limits to the answering of questions asked during the announcements section of the agenda.
- 13.4. The Chair may at any time propose a different time limit or number of speeches to Council, subject to an indicative vote.
- 13.5. A time limit can be overturned or more speeches requested at any point by passing a Procedural Motion.
- 13.6. It is possible to make a point of information about the Motion (which is neutral on the issue under debate), raise a point of issue (which can include mixed-points) and also to ask a question about the Motion.
- 13.6.1. Such a question should be for clarification of the Motion, or the effects of the Motion on the activities of Union, and should be explicitly aimed at the Chair, proposer of the Motion, or a member of the Executive.

14. Debating Procedure for Balanced Motions

- 14.1. For a Balanced Motion to mandate policy or action, Members must:

- 14.1.1. First, vote between each set of resolves in the Balanced Motion, with the set reaching a higher proportion of all votes cast then forming the resolves for an Ordinary Motion consisting of the approved Notes and Believes from the voted-upon Balanced Motion;
- 14.1.2. Second, the Ordinary Motion resulting from the Balanced Motion must then be voted upon [as an Ordinary Motion independent of the Balanced Motion].
- 14.2. Balanced Motions must set-out two alternatives in the 'Resolves' section of the Motion, which shall normally be referred to as "Resolves A" and "Resolves B".
- 14.3. Balanced Motions can only resolve to proceed one of the two presented alternatives (Resolves A or Resolves B) to an Ordinary Motion. For the avoidance of doubt.
 - 14.3.1. No ordinary resolution of a Balanced Motion may vote against the Motion;
 - 14.3.2. Voting Members shall only be permitted to vote for one of the alternatives presented (Resolves A or Resolves B) or to abstain; and,
 - 14.3.3. Procedural Motions shall still apply [see 14].
- 14.4. Balanced Motions may not be used to debate or decide:
 - 14.4.1. election or appointment to office;
 - 14.4.2. motions of no confidence an elected officer or trustee; or,
 - 14.4.3. any issue or motion requiring ratification of Council.
- 14.5. The proposer of the [Balanced] Motion (or someone they nominate) makes the proposing speech, unless:
 - 14.5.1. The proposer does not wish to make a speech and has not nominated someone to make a speech on their behalf, in which case, at the discretion of the Chair, an Student Member present may be invited to propose the Motion.
 - 14.5.2. The proposer submits a written version of a speech, which must be no longer than two A4 sides in length and in a font and format accessible to Council Members, either by:
 - 14.5.2.1. providing 50 printed copies to Council Members at the meeting and an electronic version to the Chair; or,
 - 14.5.2.2. providing a copy of the speech to the Chair before the time of the Motion being proposed so that the Chair may read the speech to Members of the meeting at the appropriate time.
 - 14.5.3. The proposer need not indicate a preference for any of the alternatives proposed in the Resolves section.
- 14.6. If an amendment has been submitted, it is debated after the proposing speech for the main Motion. At the Chair's discretion, some substantive debate of the Motion may take place before the discussion of a given amendment.
- 14.7. If more than one amendment has been submitted to the same Motion, the order the amendments are taken in is decided by the Chair. This is counted as a Chair's Ruling and can be overturned by Procedural Motion [see 10.2].
- 14.8. If an amendment is accepted by the proposers as friendly [see 10.2.] or passed by Council, it immediately becomes part of the main Motion.
- 14.9. After the opening speech, the Chair shall open a discussion of the alternatives set out in the Resolves section. Discussion of alternatives presented in the Resolves section shall follow that of discussion of Ordinary Motions.

- 14.10. The debate ends when a speech is not taken, or if a Procedural Motion to move to a vote is passed, or when five speeches have been taken. The proposer then has a chance to give a one-minute 'summation' speech before the vote is taken.
- 14.11. After the resolution of the vote, the contents of the Balanced Motion containing only the resolved set of Resolves (i.e. either Resolves A or Resolves B) shall be presented to Student Council as an Ordinary Motion, which shall then follow the procedure for the debate of Ordinary Motions as set-out in 13, Debating Procedure for Ordinary Motions.
- 14.12. It is possible to make a point of information about the Motion (which is neutral on the issue under debate), raise a point of issue (which can include mixed-points) and also to ask a question about the Motion.
- 14.12.1. Such a question should be for clarification of the Motion, or the effects of the Motion on the activities of Union, and should be explicitly aimed at the Chair, proposer of the Motion, or a member of the Executive.

15. Procedural Motions

- 15.1. The following five Procedural Motions can be proposed during discussion of a motion or amendment. They can only be considered if there has been at least one speech in favour and one speech against the motion or amendment. Procedural Motions take precedence over speeches, and are listed here in order of priority:
- 15.1.1. That the question be not put. This means that the motion or amendment shouldn't be considered. This could be used, for example, if the content of the motion or amendment is likely to cause offence, or if its resolutions are anyway ultra vires.
- 15.1.2. That the question be put. This means that the motion or amendment should be voted on immediately.
- 15.1.3. That the matter should be referred back to a Campaign or Team, an Officer, to a committee or to a later Council meeting.
- 15.1.4. That the motion or amendment should be voted on in parts. If a motion is taken in parts, each part is debated and voted upon separately; if passed, in the case of a policy motion, the part then becomes Union Policy. If an amendment is taken in parts, each part is debated and voted upon separately; if passed the part then becomes part of the motion being considered.
- 15.1.5. That part of the motion or amendment should be deleted.
- 15.2. The following five Procedural Motions can be proposed on a point of order at any time during a meeting, besides during a speech or during the taking of a vote (unless they relate specifically to the procedure of that vote).
- 15.2.1. A request for a Chair's ruling. This must be given at once.
- 15.2.2. A challenge to a Chair's ruling.
- 15.2.3. A motion that the Chair should leave the Chair for the rest of the meeting. If this is passed, the Chair shall hand over to a person selected by the Democracy Committee for this motion. The Chair should be allowed to make the speech against. If the motion is passed, the person selected as above for this motion becomes the Chair.
- 15.2.4. A motion that the time limit should be extended for a specified period or for extra speeches.
- 15.2.5. That a specific part of this By-Law, may be suspended for a specified agenda item, subject to 15.2.5.1. below. If this motion passes, then the Chair has discretion over the procedure of the meeting.

- 15.2.5.1. Such motions shall not be permitted for the provisions of: 1 (Duties), 3 (Membership and Attendance), 4 (Responsibilities of Members), 6 (Voting), and 9 (Motions).
- 15.2.6. Procedural Motions are voted on after one speech in favour and one speech against of not more than 30 seconds. They require a simple majority, do not have a quorum and do not need to be recorded on voting papers. Extra rounds of speeches can be requested and will go ahead if there are no objections. In the case of objections, there should be an indicative vote, requiring a simple majority, on whether there should be another round.
- 15.2.7. If a Procedural Motion to take an item in parts is passed the motion is separated and debate starts again for each part of the motion. Debate on every part shall be limited to two speeches, although extra rounds can be requested by a Procedural Motion.
- 15.2.8. Questions during procedural motions should be about procedure and addressed to the chair.

16. When Resolutions Take Effect

- 16.1. Resolutions, other than those from motions of No Confidence, that do not specify otherwise shall take effect immediately upon passage in Council provisional to:
 - 16.1.1. there being no legitimate and demonstrable legal or financial reason to delay implementation; and,
 - 16.1.2. there being no conflict with the provisions of the Articles of Association and/or these By-Laws.

17. Records

- 17.1. Votes at Council meetings are recorded on the voting record. These are publicly available.
- 17.2. Attendance Records shall be kept for each Council, and the record of attendance for Council representatives shall be compiled by the Chair (or their delegate); this record should be published in the most public manner found reasonably feasible.

18. Executive accountability and reports

- 18.1. The Sabbatical Officers shall submit their annual campaign objectives for approval to the first Council meeting of Michaelmas Term.
 - 18.1.1. In the case of Sabbatical Officers who lead a Representative Campaign or Issue Campaign, these objectives shall also be submitted to their respective Campaign Forum for approval.
 - 18.1.2. If there is a discrepancy between Council and the Forum on this issue, the decision of the Forum shall take precedence.
- 18.2. The Sabbatical Officers shall submit written reports to each Council to update on their progress against their objectives and assigned Union policies.
- 18.3. The representatives of Representative Campaigns and Issue Campaigns (as defined in By-Law 5 - Standing Bodies) with representation on the Union Executive must present a brief update of team activities and plans at each meeting of Council.

19. National Union of Students

- 19.1. For such time as the Union is affiliated to the National Union of Students the following shall apply.
- 19.2. The Student Council shall be the sovereign policy making body of the Union for the purposes of the National Union of Students (NUS).

- 19.3. For each body within the NUS for which the Union may submit motions, the Chair of Student Council shall designate suitable Student Council meetings at which:
- 19.3.1. Motions may be proposed for submission to the NUS;
 - 19.3.2. Amendments to any published motions may be proposed;
- 19.4. Any Student Member may propose to the Student Council motions for submission to NUS Conferences. These motions shall be subject to the approval of the Student Council as if they were Ordinary Policy Motions, except that they shall not become Policy.
- 19.4.1. Where limits are placed on the number of submissions to an NUS Conference the Union can submit, there shall be a priority ballot of the Student Council on submissions.

BY-LAW 2 – POLICY OF THE UNION

1. Scope of Union Policy

- 1.1. Union Policy motions shall set a position or mandate of the students' union on behalf of Members, subject to Article 2 (Objects) of the Articles of Association, which may:
 - 1.1.1. Set a collective view or agenda that is deemed representative of the Union's Membership;
 - 1.1.2. Mandate ensuing and ongoing activity in line with such a view to be undertaken or overseen by Union representatives or specific groups.
- 1.2. Policy of the Union will stay in affect for the time period specified in the policy (maximum of three years) unless subsequent policy is enacted that supersedes it or it is prevented from lapsing at the Student Council.
- 1.3. Student Council will pass all motions which the Union wishes to propose to NUS National Conference. These motions will not enter into Union Policy, unless this is specified in the motion text. If Student Council passes more text for NUS Conference than it can submit, then Council will be asked to complete a priority ballot to decide which text is submitted.

2. Policy formation
